How we begin

We begin with a free, thirty-minute conversation by video. It's a chance to sense whether there's a right relationship between us, and what shape it might take.

on pricing

I don't have a fixed rate. We find it together, in conversation, based on what you're seeking and the role I would play in your life. Perceiving what is needed, and what is real, is already part of the work.

Whatever we agree on should feel like a real commitment, enough that it matters and never so much that it becomes a strain. If an organization you're part of supports your growth, I'm glad to arrange payment with them directly.

the shape of the work

Most people work with me for three to six months. Some relationships continue for years. We meet by video, there's no curriculum, and the work unfolds according to your need and your longing.

if it isn't the right fit

I'm connected with a wide network of coaches, therapists and somatic healers working in every aspect of transformation, and I'd be glad to connect you with someone.

before we meet

Spend a few minutes with two questions.

> What are you really looking for?

> What role do you imagine I might play in supporting your deepest longing and highest aspiration?

When you're ready.
